Why This Isn't Just Another Internship

At Vivnovation, we're shaping the future of healthcare by combining clinical intelligence, human empathy, and AI-powered technology.

This program allows you to work at the intersection of care, technology, and innovation—supporting global clients and driving real-time healthcare transformation.

This is your chance to:

- Build global exposure in the US healthcare ecosystem
- Solve complex problems using AI + Human-Centred Design
- Get mentored by industry experts and contribute to real outcomes
- Kickstart your leadership journey through hands-on strategy and execution

What You'll Be Working On

As a Vivnovator, you'll drive tech-enabled, patient-centric healthcare transformation for US-based clients. Your work spans AI-assisted EHR auditing, coding, billing, and care coordination (CCM, TCM, CPO), enhancing accuracy, compliance, and efficiency across the care continuum.

You'll also contribute to remote patient monitoring, home health integration, and digital workflows connecting DME, labs, and pharmacies into seamless systems. Beyond operations, you'll play a key role in product development, deployment, and customer success, ensuring our technology solutions deliver measurable impact and elevate patient care experiences.
